

Major Presentation Outline 25%

Objective:

Is to write a 25 minute presentation on your topic of choice within your field of study, but for an audience that doesn't share your expertise. Make sure that you are able to simplify your topic for someone who isn't familiar with what you're talking about. Much like a Ted Talk or a TedX.

Criteria:

- 1) Your voice and pronunciation is clear, you are animated, and entertaining enough. /20
- 2) You know your own presentation; you are allowed to read from cue cards, but make sure that they're just an aid, not your whole presentation. /30
- 3) You must have visual aid: video, powerpoint, keynote, etc., which will be handed in after your presentation. /20
- 4) Your presentation is fluid, meaning you don't jump from point to point, but you follow a series of points. /15
- 5) You're able to engage your audience sufficiently, by asking questions, have them participate, etc. /15
